

NEW TRIAL DENIED IN GOODMAN CASE

Mrs. Richardson's Attorneys Immediately Give Notice That They Will Appeal.

Justice Daniel T. Wright this morning overruled the motion for a new trial filed by attorneys on behalf of Anna Richardson Goodman, who claims to be the legal widow of the late octogenarian John A. Brown by a deathbed marriage and seeks a share of his $50,000 estate. Her claim was dismissed by Justice Wright about ten days ago.

Her attorneys gave immediate notice of an appeal.

Tracey L. Jeffords and Joseph Salomon, representing Mrs. Goodman, declare that the court had erred in not dismissing the jury because of the alleged misconduct for the estate and in declaring the divorce granted Mrs. Goodman in Virginia thirty-six years ago invalid.

JURY WILL INQUIRE INTO CLARKE'S DEATH

Coroner's Inquest Will Be Held in District Morgue Tomorrow Morning.

An inquest will be held at the District morgue tomorrow morning over the body of Edward L. Clarke, a special watchman at the Government Hospital for the Insane, who was struck by a Capital Traction car at Third street and Pennsylvania avenue southeast late last night, and died an hour later in Providence Hospital.

Clarke was on his way to his home in Congress Heights when the accident occurred. He was walking on the terrace between car tracks, and to avoid being struck by an east-bound car stepped on the opposite tracks, falling to notice an approaching west-bound car. He was struck by the fender and thrown several feet.

Police of the Fifth precinct have detained G. T. Daniels, conductor; B. Hummer, motorman, and Henry Hansborough, new conductor, who was being broken in, as witnesses.

ALL WANT RUDOLPH TO RETAIN OFFICE

Playgrounds Association Committee Will Ask Him to Withdraw His Resignation.

The Washington Playgrounds Association is going to prevent the resignation of its president, Cuno H. Rudolph, from taking effect if it can possibly do so.

A committee, composed of Judge De Lacy, William H. Baldwin, and Otto Luebkert, has been appointed to wait upon Mr. Rudolph and ask that he withdraw his resignation, which was made at a meeting of the board of directors of the association yesterday.

When informed today of the appointment of the committee, Mr. Rudolph declined to state whether he would withdraw his resignation, or whether he refuses to withdraw it. Arthur C. Moses will be the most likely candidate for the vacancy.

The opening of the playgrounds for the Washington children will occur the latter part of June, as the result of a resolution passed at the meeting of the board yesterday.

MISSOURI BANKER IS FREED BY TAFT

Flavius Tygard, Aged Prisoner, Arouses Sympathies of President.

His sympathies aroused over the prisoner's physical and mental condition, and in consideration of the fact that the man had served all but two years of a five years' sentence, President Taft today approved the recommendation of the Attorney General, and ordered the immediate release from Leavenworth penitentiary of Flavius Tygard, former president of the Bates county National Bank, of Butler, Mo., and former treasurer of the Masonic Home of Missouri.

Tygard was active in the bank's management against his physician's orders, he being seventy years old, and having sustained a slight stroke of paralysis shortly before the irregularities for which he was punished.

ASKS CLEMENCY FOR SARAH KOTEN

Judge Takes Under Advisement Requests of Attorney For Woman.

NEW YORK, April 15.—Attorney Abe Levy filed with Supreme Court Justice Blanchard today a half-dozen affidavits setting forth reasons why clemency should be accorded Sarah Koten, who was to have been sentenced today on her plea of guilty of manslaughter in the first degree for the killing of Dr. Samuel Aschultz.

Justice Blanchard announced that he has not decided what disposition shall be made of the prisoner, and deferred sentence until next Tuesday.

PRINCE ARTHUR SAFE.

PORTLAND, Me., April 15.—Inquiry, prompted by a rumor that the steamer Prince Arthur, with a party of Maine tourists en route to Bermuda, had met with an accident, has brought the answer that the vessel had arrived safely in Bermuda.

FULTON DECLINES THE POST IN CHINA

Oregon Former Senator Does Not Want to Take Rockhill's Place.

Former Senator Fulton of Oregon today telegraphed to the President his declination of the post of minister to China to succeed Minister Rockhill. This post was offered to Fulton after the President had refused to make him a Federal judge in Oregon.

No decision has been reached as to who will get the post.

CHIEF MOURNER.

The minister had just been giving the class a lesson on the prodigal son. At the finish, to test what attention had been paid to the teaching, he asked: "Who was sorry that the prodigal had returned?" The most forward youngster in the class breathlessly answered: "The fatted calf."—Home Herald.

WILL SWAP OFFICE FOR MONGREL DOG

Postmaster Earning Ten Cents a Day Could Kill Animal, But Not Job.

SANDISFIELD, Conn., April 15.—A chance to trade in an easy job is offered by Henry S. Manley, town constable and auctioneer, who has been in charge of the postoffice since the death of the aged postmistress, Miss King, a few months ago. He advertised today as follows:

Wanted—A mongrel dog, any old dog, in exchange for a postoffice; anyone wishing to make such a deal will do well to let me hear from them right away quick. I could kill the dog, but don't see how I can the postoffice. Manley says the postoffice pays about 10 cents a day in the winter.
